

The Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences held a follow-up meeting on the faculty's website development (English version)

Having a university website in an English language platform is one of the main strategies deployed by SSRU executives this year- on September 25, 2018, The Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences held a follow-up meeting for the faculty's website development. The Dean of the Faculty together with Vice-Dean for the Academic Affairs and Vice-Dean for the Administration attended the following meeting together with representatives from an English Language Program at Pornsophon Conference Room, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences.
