

Thai Folk Song Singing Contest in the Celebration of the 80th Anniversary of the Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University Establishment

Thai Folk Song Singing Contest in the Celebration of the 80th Anniversary of the Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University Establishment

On November 11, 2018, Department of Thai Language, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences held the Thai folk song singing contest for higher education students on the celebration of the 80th anniversary of the university establishment. The event was at the Activity Square, Building 35, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University.

At the competition, there were more than 50 students joined the contest. Peerawat Sawangwit, Cholthicha Petnasangkal, and Saowalak Kosumphon were honored as the judging committee of the contest.

Regarding the result of the contest, the winner was Mr. Danunan Chuanyou from Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University. The first runner-up was Mr. Athiwat Changnoi from Ban Somdet Chaopraya Rajabhat University and the second runner-up was Ms. Tippayaporn Viyasing, from Chandrakasem Rajabhat University. In addition, three honorable mention awards were given to Ms. Ruktapa Apichai from Rajamangala University of Technology Phranakhon, Miss Lalita Butsriphum from Rajamangala University of Technology Phra Nakhon, and Miss Vikanda Mansalung from Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University.