

The lecturer from the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences received the award for the outstanding researcher year 2018 from “The 5th Rajabhat University National and International Research & Academic Conferences (RUNIRAC V)”

On December 3rd, 2018 His Majesty King Maha Vajiralongkorn Bodindradebayavarangkun had assigned General Surayud Chulanont, a Privy Councilor to King Vajiralongkorn given the award for the outstanding researcher from “The 5th Rajabhat University National and International Research & Academic Conferences (RUNIRAC V)” at Phetchaburi Rajabhat University. The winner who got the outstanding award for this year is the Asst. Prof. Phusit Phukamchanoad, the lecturer from the Social Development Management, Social and Cultural Management Program from the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University, which this research studied about social development and focus on human development, behavior, local community for finding the factors to enhance the quality of life according to the Self-Sufficient Economy philosophy from the King Rama IX. Moreover, this research can develop for the community services for establishing the knowledge and adapt with the local wisdom, such as the project from the Centre for Learning, Research, Academic Services to the Society, Ban Saraphi, Samutsongkhram Province, other examples are the making an unearned income for reducing the difference between the financial status in the urban society in Wat Pracha Rabue Tham community, Bangkok Province. Including the making Clothing Patterns from local phasin, Phukamchanoad District for preserving the identity of Phukamchanoad, Amphoe Ban Dung, Udon Thani Province.