

The project for the development of cooperation with the foreign networks and publish the academic research to the international for the fiscal year 2019, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences

Regards on December 22nd – 27th, 2018, Asst. Prof. Dr. Nipon Sasithornsaowapa, Dean of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, including with the Executive Board, the lecturers, the academic support staff, and students from the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences attended ACN - International Conference on Recent Development in Social Sciences and Business Management (ICRDSSBM). In this conference, the academic support staff and students presented the researches too. Moreover, visiting at the Kyoto Prefectural Library for developing the activities regards to the cooperation with the foreign networks.