

The Project of Chinese Knowledge and skills Competition No.16, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University

On Friday 8th February 2019, Chinese major, humanities department, the faculty of, humanities and social sciences, Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University held The Project of Chinese Knowledge and skills Competition No.16. It was a great honor from Assoc.Prof.Dr. Ruedej Kerdwichai, the chancellor of Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University, to be the president of this event. There was many activities such as Chinese speech contest, Chinese singing contest, Chinese calligraphy contest, exhibition signboard contest, Chinese quiz contest, and the entertain performance from Chinese majored student. Specially, it was a great honor from Prof.Dr. Li Yin Sheng, the dean of the faculty of literature and Li Chen Lan, the lecturer from Guangxi University, China, to be the judges of this competition. There were student representatives from Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University, Rajamangala University of Technology Rattanakosin, Panyapiwat Institute of Management, and University of the Thai Chamber of Commerce in this competition.

The project of Chinese knowledge and skills competition was held annually by Chinese major. The purpose of project is creating an opportunity for student to practice problem solving and Chinese skills which is very important. In addition, it can be a chance for student to practice good personality in public and encourage Chinese learning process to develop the student to achieve academic and personality qualification.

