Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences had a fire drill for getting ready to the state of emergency

Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences managed a fire drill and fire escape plan on 8th March 2019 at building 35. This activity is a part of the preparation for the state of emergency program in fiscal year 2019.

Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences with the collaboration of Central Affairs Divisions, Office of the President and Samsen fire station joined the drill. The officers and students from faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences were honored by Police Sergeant Chalong Bomthonglang, Assistant Fire and Rescue Office, Professional Level with the fireman team from Samsen fire station as the guest speakers. The knowledge gained would be useful for an emergency preparedness and response plan and the safety of life and property, also for providing social service activity in case of real emergency.
