

Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences organized the Tourism Industry and Hospitality Management Program, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences visited “12th Siam Sport Awards”

Asst. Prof. Chantouch Wannathanom, Ajarn Bua Srikos, and Dr. Weera Weerasophon led 160 junior students of the Tourism Industry and Hospitality Management Program from Health and Sport Management and Mice & Event major to visit “12th Siam Sport Awards” organized by Siam Sport Syndicate Public Co.,Ltd. at Aksara Theater, Pullman King Power soi Rang Nam, Bangkok on 6th March 2019.

There were awards announcement and rewarded for honoring the athletes and sports association who had great accomplishments and made reputation for Thailand. The trophies and rewards were given to honor the outstanding athletes and sports association also to the sport industry contributors annually.

Students have got more knowledge and experience from this event. Tourism Industry and Hospitality Management Program would like to give the great gratitude to Dr. Sarayuth Mahawaleerat, managing director of Siam Sport Syndicate Public Co.,Ltd. for his courtesy and facilitation.