

The students from the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences joined to present the research article for the 3rd National Undergraduate Conference on Humanities and Social Sciences.

Asst. Prof. Dr. Nipon Sasithornsawapa, Dean of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences and Thai Programs congratulations to Ms. Natthaphorn Phonpreuksa, the 3rd year student from the Thai Programs, Department of Humanities, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, who present the research article. The advisor for this research article is Ms. Krittika Phonkoet, for the topic “ Speech acts in the song about the Victims and the Rescuers from Tham Luang Nang Non.” The 3rd National Undergraduate Conference on Humanities and Social Sciences “ Languages Social and People in Digital Era (4.0),” which held on April 19th, 2019 at Raphiphan Conference Room, the Faculty of Liberal Arts, Prince of Songkla University.