

The Law program, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University got the 1st runner-up for the first round of Bangkok district for the competition on the Rapee's Day Ceremony.

คณะมนุษยศาสตร์และสังคมศาสตร์ มหาวิทยาลัยราชภัฏสวนสุนันทา โทร. 0 2160 1284
www.hs.ssrui.ac.th. / e-mail : hs.ssrui6@gmail.com

The Law program, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University got the 1st runner-up for the first round of Bangkok district for the competition on the Rapee's Day Ceremony.

On August 10th, 2019, Dr. Kamonwan Yoowattana, Mr. Thattanun Khonglumthan, and the students from the Law program, Social Sciences department, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences joined to the competition for the Questions and Answers in the first round of the contest for Bangkok district on the Rapee's Day Ceremony, which held by the Court of Justice Thailand at the Judicial Training Institute Building, Ratchadapisek Road, Bangkok. This contest, there were 27 teams for the university level to join this competition. The winner will get the scholarship, the trophy, and the certificate from the secretary-general of the Court of Justice.

For this competition, the representative from Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University (Team A) got the 1st runner-up, received the scholarship for 10,000 Baht, the trophy, and the certificate. The winner was the representative from Ramkhamhaeng University (Team A), the 2nd runner-up was Suan Dusit University (Team B), the honorable mentions were Chulalongkorn University (Team A), and Thammasat University (Team B). After this, the representative from Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University will go to compete with the regional representative for the final competition which takes place on September 14th, 2019 at the Judicial Training Institute Building.