

A Student from the English Program, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences got the 1st runner-up from the Speech Contest Change the World 2019 competition.

Mr. Duangsompong Termsombut, the second-year student from the English Program, the Humanities Department, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University, got the 1st runner-up from the Speech Contest Change the World 2019 competition. This competition took place on August 17th, 2019 North Bangkok University by the International Buddhist Society, the 60th Dhammachai Education Foundation of Australia and New Zealand, Chompol Speech School and Diplomatic Speaking Institute Foundation, Bangkok Toastmasters Club, and the Chinese Language Teachers Association of Thailand.