

The Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences joined with the Samutsakhon Community Colleges to build on education, research, and local development.

On October 4th, 2019, Asst. Prof. Dr. Nipon Sasithornsawapa, Dean of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, joined the meeting with the executive of the Samutsakhon Community Colleges and the team, Dr. Kawin Pinjumrus, Deputy Director of Samut Sakhon Community. The purpose of this meeting is to consult, for the guideline of education management for the students, who would like to study in the Bachelor's degree in the Public Administration Program. Moreover, it talked about the guideline for making researches and social services for local development for further. This meeting consisted of Asst. Prof. Dr. Vilasinee Jintalikhitdee-the Vice-Dean for Academic Affairs, Mr. Sanchai Ratthanakwan-the Head of Local Government Program, Dr. Paranee Srikeaw-the Head of Public and Private Sectors Management Program, Mr. Phichak Phutrakhul-the Head of Public Administration Program. This meeting took place in Phornsophon Conference room. For more information, Samutsakhon Community Colleges is the undergraduate level. Furthermore, this college service about education to people and communities in Samutsakhon area, in which there are 4 curriculums, regard the Education Standards of the institute of community colleges, the Ministry of Higher Education, Science, Research and Innovation.