

The Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences congratulated to the lecturers for getting the position of the Assistant Professor and graduated in the higher level.

On December 3rd, 2019, Asst. Prof. Dr. Nipon Sasithornsawapa, the Dean of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, congratulated and gave the bouquets to the five lecturers from the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences for getting the position of the Assistant Professor and graduated in the higher level. The five lecturers are the following:

1. Mr. Paiboon Choowattanakij, the lecturer from the Law program, got the position of Assistant Professor in the Criminal Law.
2. Dr. Kamonwan Yoowattana, the lecturer from the Law program (Head of the Law Program), got the position of Assistant Professor in the Private Law.
3. Ms. Pawita Kakhai, the lecturer from the Law program, got the position of Assistant Professor in the Business Law.
4. Dr. Marndarath Suksanga, the lecturer of the Local Government program, got the position of Assistant Professor in the Public Administration.
5. Ms. Paranee Srikeaw, Head of Public and Private Sectors Management program, graduated in the Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.).

On this occasion, the Dean of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences congratulations and appreciation to the five lecturers who are the part to tried hard for driving the policy of the faculty and university for success.