

The faculty members from the law program, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, joined the Inspire Project gave the knowledge about the law to the prisoners at Sukhothai Province of the Prison.

On December 3rd-4th, 2019, Mr. Tanawat Pisitchinda, the lecturer from the Law program, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, joined for the 2nd time of the Inspire Project for giving the knowledge and consulting about the law at Sukhothai province of the Prison. On this occasion, Mr. Tanawat and the group of the speaker gave the knowledge and advice to the 50 trainees. On the first day of the training, the woman prisoners took the quiz before started the training. Then the speakers discussed the knowledge about many types of drugs and the offenses. The second day, the speakers gave the knowledge about the cases that the prisoners got the punishment and the steps for judging. After finished the training, the speakers gave the quiz again and corrected answers.

Credit: Thank you for the information from the Fan-page of the Inspire Project under the Royal Initiative of Her Royal Highness Princess Bajarakitiyabha.