

Social and Cultural Management Program, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences organized a meeting for course development criticism

Social and Cultural Management Program, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences organized a meeting for course development criticism, Bachelor of Arts Program in Social and Cultural Management on November 29th, 2019. The meeting was honored by Associate Professor Yothin Svangdee and Assistant Professor Chudchapum Seechomphu as the expert committees to give suggestions for improving and developing courses to meet the 2015 qualifications framework for higher education. The meeting was held at Pornsophon meeting room in the faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences. This revised course are going to be used in the first semester of 2021.