

The 17th of Development for the knowledge of the Chinese skills contest, the Chinese program, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences.

On January 17th, 2020, the Chinese program, Department of Humanities, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University, held the 17th of Development for the knowledge of the Chinese skills contest. It's an honor that Asst. Prof. Dr. Nipon Sasithornsawapa, Dean of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences as a reporter for an objective of this contest to Asst. Prof. Dr. Chananart Minanandana, the Vice President for Student Affairs as the chairman. This contest took place at the Playground, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences.

On this day, there were many activities such as the Chinese speech contest, Chinese singing contest, Chinese handwriting contest, Chinese art performance, decoration of the displays on the booths for the Chinese culture, and the demonstration for making wonton from the students of the Chinese program. All of these activities enhanced the development of knowledge skills, including the personality for using the Chinese. The participants who joined this contest came from the Rajamangala University of Technology Rattanakosin, Phranakhon Rajabhat University, and Panyapiwat Institute of Management.