

The seminar for the training about “the Patent/Petty Patent for Protecting the Intellectual Property that Concern with the Research,” the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences.

On February 4th, 2020, the Research and Educational Services Section, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, held the seminar for training to the faculty members and the staff in the topic “the Patent/Petty Patent for Protecting the Intellectual Property that Concern with the Research.” Currently, Asst. Prof. Dr. Nipon Sasithornsawapa, Dean of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, presided over for the opening this training at Nibha Nabhadol conference room. In this, Dr. Watcharakorn Pranee from the Patent Office, Department of Intellectual Property, Ministry of Commerce, to be the honor as the special guest speakers for sharing and creating the knowledge of the patent/the petty patent to the faculty member and the staff.