The students from the Geography and Geo-Informatics program, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, got the "IC3 Digital Literacy Certification" for passing the examination.

On February 7th, 2020, the students from the Geography and Geo-Informatics program, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, joined to receive the certificates for the exam of the "IC3 Digital Literacy Certification". This occasion, Asst. Prof. Sirilak Ketchaya, the Director of Academic Resource and Information Technology, presided over the ceremony, including Mr. Aphirak Thitinaruemit, the Deputy Director of Information Technology Center, Ms. Kunyaphat Thanakunwutthirot, the Deputy Director of Quality Assurance and Revenue, congratulated to the 27 students who passed the examination. In which, this examination, the 3 students from the Geography and Geo-Informatics program, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, got the certificates in the 2nd level. And Mr. Morakot Worachairungreung congratulated these 2 students on the 4th floor, Building 33, Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University.