

Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences organized parent meeting for students in academic cooperation project with Normal Yunnan University

Chinese language program in the Department of Humanities, faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, organized parent meeting for students in academic cooperation project between Chinese Language students of Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University and Normal Yunnan University, Republic of China, class of 15 on February 13th, 2020. The meeting was held at Nipha Noppadol meeting room, faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences.

Assistant Professor Dr. Nipon Sasithornsavapa, the Dean of faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences presided over the ceremony and gave a speech to students. Assistant Professor Dr. Vilasinee Jintalikhitdee, Vice-Dean for Academic Affairs, together with lecturers from Chinese language program welcomed parents and students and providing information about student exchange program between 2 universities. The way of living while studying at the Republic of China was explained in the meeting.

There are 21 Chinese language students in the class of 15. The schedule for traveling to study at Normal Yunnan University, Republic of China, is in March 2nd, 2020.