

Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences held the third academic committee meeting of academic year 2020

Assistant Professor Dr. Nipon Sasithornsavapa, the Dean of Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, presided over the 3rd faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences board of committee meeting in academic year 2020 on March 11th, 2020. The agendas of the meeting were the consideration of students' grade approval in the second semester of the academic year 2019 (Yunnan Normal student exchange program) and the teaching management of Bachelor of Public Administration Program in Police Management (curriculum revision). There was also the consideration about the teaching management during the transmission of COVID-19 virus which have to give the priority to student safety and consider the academic achievement together with the completeness of the content and learning outcomes. The instructors have authority to adjust the teaching methods appropriately. Assistant Professor Dr.

Vilasinee Jintalikhitdee, Vice Dean for Academic Affairs together with head of the programs and program representatives joined the meeting at Pornsophon meeting room in the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences.