

The Vice-Dean for Administration of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences gave the policy about sanitation for use in the first semester of the academic year 2020.

On July 1st, 2020, Dr. Paranee Srikeaw, the Vice-Dean for Administration of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, held the meeting to the officers for giving the policy and the guidelines about the hygiene for the classrooms as the vigilant measures against the spread of COVID-19. This meeting talked about the setting of the disease control station for checking the temperature, wearing the face mask, providing the hand sanitizer, cleaning the floors, elevators, restrooms, tables, chairs, and the classrooms, and setting the mark point for tables as the social distancing policy for preventing from the COVID-19 before start the first semester in the academic year 2020.