The Information Technology Section, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, increases the service points for the hand sanitizers in the computer laboratory for preventing the spread of Coronavirus (Covid-19).

On July 3rd, 2020, the Information Technology Section, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, increases the counters for the hand sanitizers in the computer laboratory for preventing the spread of the Coronavirus (Covid-19). This is one of the preventive measures for managing the classrooms for both the lecturers and the students before the academic class begins.
