

The Dean of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences congratulated the students from the Thai Program for presenting the research articles for the National Academic Conference.

On September 29th, 2020, Assoc. Prof. Dr.Nipon Sasithornsawapa, the Dean of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, congratulated to the students from the Thai Program, the Department of Humanities, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences for presenting the two research articles in the 11th Rajamangala Surin National Conference (11th RSNC) "The New Normal in Research and Innovation."

This conference set at Rajamangala University of Technology Isan Surin Campus as the following:

1. Ms. Jirapinya Joomsrisingha presented for the topic “the Humor in the Klong Khongkwan TV show.” The adviser is Dr. Saowalak Sae-lee.
2. Ms. Juthamas Santhamittre presented for the topic “the Speech Act in the Bodyslam's song.” The adviser is Ms. Krittika Phonkoet.

The Thai Program would like to thank the Dean of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences supported the budget and gave this opportunity to the students for presenting the research articles to the public.