

The seminar on the preparation for the professional experience in the Management Information System program and the Information Science program.

คณะมนุษยศาสตร์และสังคมศาสตร์
มหาวิทยาลัยราชภัฏสวนสุนันทา
www.hs.ssrु.ac.th

The seminar on the preparation for the professional experience in the Management Information System program and the Information Science program.

On October 27th, 2020, the Information Science, (Management Information System Program), held the seminar for preparation of professional experience in Management Information System in the topic “Guideline for the career in the information technology for designing and developing the connection between the User Interface and User Experience (UI/UX).” The guest speaker for this seminar is Mr. Krissada Chalermsook (Head of Thai Programmer Association) for giving the knowledge and information for up-skills to the 4th year students about the preparation and applying to the job career in the field of the management information system, and information science.