

Tourism Industry and Hospitality Management Program, Faculty of Humanity and Social Sciences, organized a seminar project on the topic of “MICE Tourism: How to Travel Safely in the New Normal Era”

Tourism Industry and Hospitality Management Program, Faculty of Humanity and Social Sciences, organized a seminar project on the topic of “MICE Tourism: How to Travel Safely in the New Normal Era” on October 22nd, 2020. On this occasion, Dr. Rumpaphak Rerkveerawattana honored to be the president of the project. The seminar was honored by Ms. Orachorn Wongphun-ngam, Director of MICE Potential Development, Thailand Convention & Exhibition Bureau, to be the guest speaker at Chorkaew Meeting Room, Building 31 on the 5th floor, Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University. The seminar was also broadcast live on Facebook.

The seminar project was organized by senior students. The advisor of this project is Ms. Kamonlak Phophan. The objective of this seminar was to provide knowledge and understanding for students and seminar participants about the difference between MICE & Tourism in the current situation and the economy of the country to the future.