

Thai Language Program students in the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences presented their research articles at academic conferences in the national forum

Ms. Chantararat Ruangkana and Mr. Suthiraj Kongchuay, senior students in the Thai Language Program, Department of Humanities, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, participated in presenting research articles in the 5th National Undergraduate Academic Conferences on Humanities and Social Sciences in the theme of “Media Message Society” in New Normal era. The conference organized by the Faculty of Liberal Arts, Prince of Songkla University, Hat Yai Campus. The presentation was online through the Zoom program in 2 subjects:

1. Ms. Chantararat Ruangkana, research article on "The Connection of the Message to the Music for the TV Series of Narongwit Techatanawat" Dr.Saowalak Sae Li is the research advisor.
2. Mr. Suthiraj Kongchuay research article "Speech Acts in Thai Luk Thung Songs about the Military" Ms. Krittika Pholkerd is the research advisor

Thai Language Program and Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences congratulated students for publishing their research articles to the public.