

Thai Programs, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences held a seminar about preparation for professional experience in Thai in the topic “The Art of Speaking and Communication for Working.”

Thai Programs, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences held a seminar about preparation for professional experience in Thai in the topic “The Art of Speaking and Communication for Working.”

On January 6th, 2021, Thai program, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University, held the activity for the preparation for the professional experience in Thai in a topic “The Art of Speaking and Communication for Working” through the online for preventing the spreading the Covid-19. It’s an honor that Ms.Gina Jeenafu (Gina) came as a guest speaking for this seminar for the third-year students. In this seminar, the students got speaking skills and listening skills. Also, how to communicate with other people and the presentation. The students can use this knowledge to apply to their work in the future.