

Thai program, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, held the seminar for preparing the students for the future career in the topic “The developing of the speaking and writing skills for the public relation.”

On January 27th, 2021, the Thai program, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University, held a seminar on the preparation for the professional experience in the topic, “The developing of the speaking and writing skills for the public relation.” On this occasion, Lieutenant Commander (woman) Jirawat Chatsanguanchai, Public Relation Officer, Naval Transportation Department, was the guest speaker. In this seminar, the students got the knowledge and experience for enhancing the speaking and writing skills, the principle, and the steps for writing the public relation news, which students can use in their future.